

Your team state is the US Youth Soccer association through which your team is registered. If your team state is not listed in the dropdown that means that they are not using the tournament center for their travel permits, sanctioning, etc. and you should not be registering with HTGSports.